

Canberra's Ultimate

TREASURE HUNT

Can you find?

- paddleboats on Lake Burley Griffin
- the Captain Cook Memorial Jet in Lake Burley Griffin
- Australia's largest musical instrument, the National Carillon
- Telstra Tower atop Black Mountain
- a bolt of lightning at Questacon
- a mechanical humanoid at Questacon
- red high heels at the Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House
- funny political cartoons at the Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House
- an Australia flag the size of a double decker bus at Australian Parliament House
- six giant pears at the National Gallery of Australia
- a painting of a famous actor at the National Portrait Gallery
- a freshly minted coin at the Royal Australian Mint
- a heritage Merry-Go-Round in the city
- a treehouse in the Australian National Botanic Gardens
- little penguins swimming at the National Zoo & Aquarium
- glass artists in the hot shop at the Canberra Glassworks
- poppies at the Australian War Memorial
- a miniature steam train at Cockington Green Gardens
- a dragon at Cockington Green Gardens
- ten long-necked turtles at the Canberra Reptile Zoo
- a T-Rex at the National Dinosaur Museum
- a prehistoric poo at the National Dinosaur Museum
- people feeding birds at the Walk In Aviary
- mandarin ice cream at Stripey Sundae
- a flying car at Quizzic Alley
- people skiing indoors at Vertical Indoor Snow Sports
- a cake that looks like a peach at Space Kitchen
- an echidna at Mulligans Flat Woodland Sanctuary
- a 1.2km long alpine slide at Corin Forest
- a snuggly koala at Tidbinbilla Nature Reserve

Abhhrrrr!

SNOWYS
2.8 km

COAST
2 km