FREE

use Check in CBR, and enjoy your trip.

covid19.act.gov.au

Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate, ACT Government. Information correct at time of printing.

Illustrations by Juliette Dudley.

are an iconic Canberra experience.

Contents

Nature Lovers

- 04 Iconic Canberra
- 06 Great walks
- 08 On two wheels
- 10 On the water
- 12 Animal encounters
- 14 Outdoor wonderland
- 16 Lookouts
- 18 Share your travels

Iconic Canberra

No trip to Canberra would be complete without ticking off these top five iconic experiences. Do all the big hitters in a long weekend, from a bike ride around the lake to a hot air balloon ride over the city, to discover more than you expect.

Take a sunrise balloon ride over the capital.

TIDBINBILLA NATURE RESERVE'S POWERFUL PAST

To many, Tidbinbilla means excellent wildlife-spotting opportunities. To the Ngunnawal people, the traditional custodians of the ACT, it's a word that comes from Jedbinbilla, meaning the 'place where boys were made men'. Explore the nature reserve, once a location for sacred coming-of-age rituals, on a self-guided walk.

tidbinbilla.act.gov.au

Planting of bulbs and annuals for Canberra's Floriade begins late March each year, guaranteeing a colourful spring spectacular.

HOT AIR BALLOON FLIGHT

Float into the sky as the sun rises, see the sights from above before enjoying a champagne celebration at Hyatt Hotel Canberra. Did you know Canberra is one of the few places where you can fly over both a cityscape and natural vistas in one flight?

balloonaloftcanberra.com.au

SPRING CELEBRATIONS AT FLORIADE

The country's premier spring festival features more than one million bulbs and annuals blooming in intricate patterns. Held mid-September to mid-October, there's more to this floral festival than just flowers; enjoy markets, workshops, and more.

floriadeaustralia.com

MOUNT AINSLIE SUMMIT WALK

australianhiker.com.au

CLASSIC BRIDGE TO BRIDGE LOOP

The Lake, as it's affectionately known, is loved by locals and visitors alike. Lined with parks and paths, walking, running, scooting or cycling Lake Burley Griffin's popular five-kilometre bridge-to-bridge loop is a must. Take in the stunning views or drop by the lakeside galleries and iconic attractions.

BOOROOMBA ROCKS AT NAMADGI NATIONAL PARK

Nestled on the northern edge of the Australian Alps, Namadgi National Park is criss-crossed with trails just waiting to be hiked. The panoramic view over the valley from Honeysuckle Campground to Booroomba Rocks shows how the park is regenerating from the devastating 2020 fires.

environment.act.gov.au

NIL DESPERANDUM AT TIDBINBILLA NATURE RESERVE

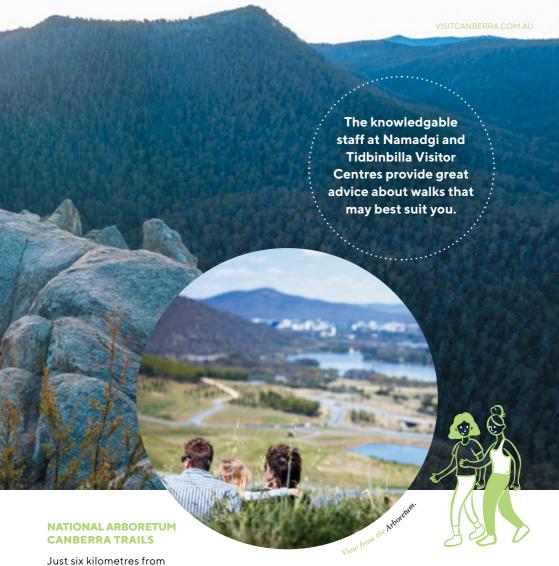

Pack a picnic of local delicacies and hike through regenerating native forest to Nil Desperandum, a heritage pisé-style house. Explore the nearby historic eucalypt distillery, wild flowers in bloom, and camelia gardens or book the property to spend a night of tranquility in the reserve.

tidbinbilla.act.gov.au

CENTENARY TRAIL AROUND CANBERRA

The Centenary Trail loops around Canberra taking in many highlights from Parliament House through to secluded natural pools. The 145-kilometre marked path is broken into seven manageable sections, although experienced hikers and cyclists may be able to complete multiple legs at a time.

australianhiker.com.au

Just six kilometres from the city centre, wander through 44,000 rare and culturally significant trees. Your hardest choice will be deciding whether to walk, cycle, ride a horse, or take a bus tour through the forests. The National Arboretum Canberra is also home to the National Bonsai Collection and a great café.

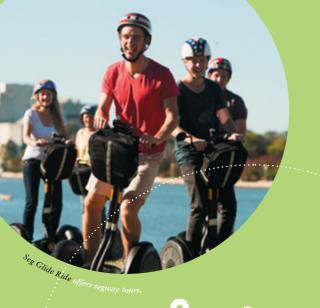

nationalarboretum.act.gov.au

DHAWURA TOURS

Make a walk in the park a more meaningful experience by following in the footsteps of the guides from Dhawura Tours. Learn how the Ngunnawal people have lived on the land for thousands of years on tours of Mount Majura, Mount Taylor and Black Mountain thuderstone.net.au

Namadgi National Park is more than 100,000 hectares in size and features 160km of walking tracks.

As a planned city with extensive dedicated bike paths, Canberra is easy to navigate on two wheels, whether they belong to bikes, e-scooters, or segways. Join a tour to see popular attractions with an expert or head to the pines for more than your average mountain bike trails.

On two ways and the second sec

CLASSIC LAKE BURLEY GRIFFIN LOOP

Lake Burley Griffin is Canberra's centrepiece and a ride around this beauty will take you to many beloved city icons.
Galleries, museums, a zoo and aquarium, an arboretum, scenic wetlands, cafes and breweries all call the 40km shoreline home.
The ride is mostly flat and predominantly uses bike paths.

SEGWAY TOUR

Want a whirlwind trip that ticks off many iconic sights in Canberra's Parliamentary Zone? Hop on a segway. Seg Glide Ride offers daily tours on this unique mode of transport, zipping along the foreshore and between many must-see places. First-timers will master riding segways in less than 10 minutes.

segglideride.com.au

BIKE TOURS

Mulga Bicycle Tours makes it easy to get your bearings with guided tours tailored to your interests. Design a bespoke itinerary or choose the Capital Highlights Tour that will take you past Old Parliament House and the National Gallery's Sculpture Garden to name just a few places of interest.

mulgabicycletours.com.au

HIRE A BIKE

Hire a Brompton bike from the Canberra and Region Visitors Centre at Regatta Point ($20 for 2 hours, $45 all day). Other hire options include Share A Bike (shareabike.com.au), Cycle City Hire (cyclecityhire.com.au), and Livelo (livelo.cc).

MOUNTAIN BIKE TRAILS

Traversing Canberra's natural playground on a mountain bike is the ultimate way to boost your adrenaline level. Majura Pines Recreation Area features 20 kilometres of well-marked tracks ranging from beginner level to the hardcore black diamond runs.

majurapines.org

HIRE AN E-SCOOTER

The Visitors Centre also has e-scooters ($15 for 1 hour, $25 for 2 hours), or choose between Neuron's orange scooters (rideneuron.com) and Beam's purple scooters (ridebeam.com) bookable via mobile apps.

TRIPS

Hire an electric GoBoat to explore the glittering jewel in Canberra's crown, Lake Burley Griffin. Don a captain's hat and pack a picnic to feast on as you see the sights from the water. You don't need a boating licence, but bookings are essential.

canberra.goboat.com.au

A much-loved tradition that has stood the test of time. peddle across the lake in a colourful paddle boat ($25 for 30 minutes, $35 for 1 hour). Circle around the Captain Cook Memorial Jet to see six tonnes of water spraying an impressive 114m into the sky (11am - 2pm daily).

capitalpaddle.com.au

PADDLEBOARDING

Got a group? Rent stand up paddleboards and explore the still waters of Yarralumla Bay, on the south-west edge of Lake Burley Griffin. The Paddle Hub accepts group bookings of 10 or more between October and April.

canberra.ymca.org.au

FLOATING

The shady Pine Island Beach is a popular spot for summer barbecues. Bring an inflatable mattress to bob gently on the sepia-hued water of the Murrumbidgee River. Walk or mountain bike to nearby Point Hut, Red Rocks Gorge, or Kambah Pool after your float.

environment.act.gov.au

Many distinctly Canberran landmarks are best seen from the water. Time your guided boat trip with sunset to be surrounded by colourful skies and the dramatic silhouette of the Brindabellas. MV Southern Cross and Lake Burley Griffin Cruises run regularly with one and two-hour options in the warmer months.

mvsoutherncross.com.au lakecruises.com.au

Mulligans Flat is home to more than 100 endangered Eastern Bettongs.

STAY OVERNIGHT AT THE ZOO

Be neighbours with a tiger for the night at Jamala Wildlife Lodge. Set inside the National Zoo & Aquarium, the lodge's luxurious rooms and bungalows allow guests to wake up alongside giraffes, lions and sun bears. Meet rare creatures up close with an animal encounter experience and enjoy a wander through the aquarium.

jamalawildlifelodge.com.au nationalzoo.com.au

KOALAS IN THE SANCTUARY

Tidbinbilla Nature Reserve, a 40-minute drive from the city centre, is a sanctuary for an abundance of native wildlife. Venture along the Koala Path to see these snuggly marsupial, wander the Sanctuary Loop and challenge yourself to spot ten Aussie species, or walk the Camels Hump trail for scenic views over Canberra.

tidbinbilla.act.gov.au

KANGAROOS AT WESTON PARK

Head to this 40-hectare reserve in Yarralumla at dusk or dawn and there's a high chance you'll spot a mob of kangaroos nibbling at the meadows, though they also like to recline in the sun at high noon. Weston Park also features an excellent kids' playground, a miniature train, and a marked orienteering course.

environment.act.gov.au

BIRDLIFE AT JERRABOMBERRA WETLANDS

Over 170 different bird species call the wetlands home. See how many you can spot as you venture along the signposted walking trails and bike tracks. Keep an eye out for frogs and even platypus as well, before heading to the nearby Dairy Road precinct for beers, burgers, bouldering and indoor skiing.

jerrabomberrwetlands.org.au

QUOLLS AT MULLIGANS FLAT SANCTUARY

Snuffly echidnas, tiny bettongs and elusive eastern quolls thrive at Mulligans Flat Woodland Sanctuary, a 25-minute drive from the CBD. Join a guided Twilight Tour to increase your chances of spotting these secretive creatures or follow the wellmarked trails to enjoy a six-kilometre walk or 12-kilometre circuit of this native wonderland.

mulligansflat.org.au

Outdoor wonderland

With more than half of the ACT protected as nature reserves, Canberra truly is an outdoor wonderland. For an adventure to remember, have a snowball fight in a forest of eucalypts or glamp under the stars.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BOTANIC GARDENS WALKS

To walk through the Gardens is to walk through Australia's unique landscapes, from tropical rainforests to the red centre. Climb into the canopy to explore the Paperbark Treehouse, grab lunch on the deck of Pollen Café or pamper yourself at Jindii Eco Spa — all nestled in the gardens.

parksaustralia.gov.au/botanic-gardens
pollencafe.com.au iindii.com.au

POD PLAYGROUND FUN

Imagine airborne acorns connected with tunnels and nets just waiting to be climbed — that's the magic of the Pod Playground at the National Arboretum Canberra. Surrounded by forests of rare trees, this picturesque play space is a hop, skp and jump away from rolling hills that are perfect for flying kites.

nationalarboretum.act.gov.au

NAKED CUBBY COLLECTIVE GLAMPING

Sleep next to the vines and under the stars at Mount Majura Vineyard and disconnect from technology. Here your only jobs are to determine which of the estate's wines is your favourite, feast on proudly local food, and star gaze before snuggling up in a chic bell tent or tiny house for the night.

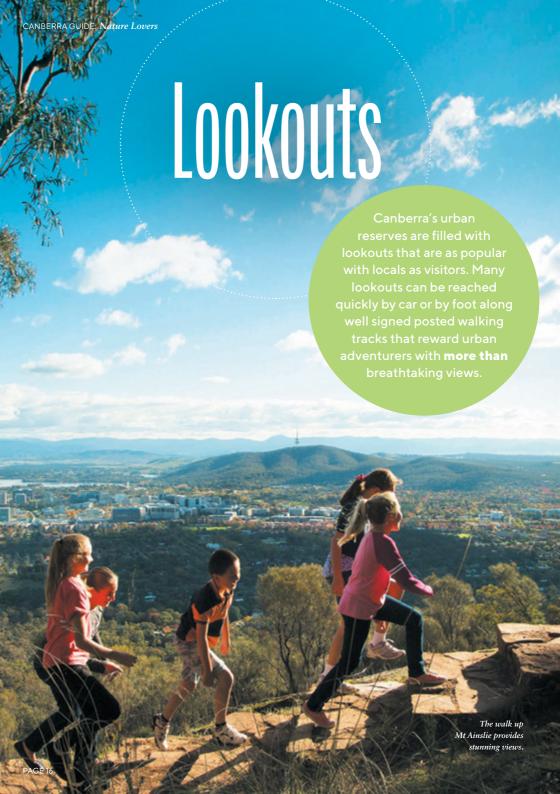

nakedcubbycollective.com

CORIN FOREST ACTIVITIES

Corin Forest transforms with the seasons. In winter, young families will love building snowmen, skiing easy downhill slopes and tobogganing. Year round you can jump on board the Alpine Slide and descend 1.2 kilometres through the majestic Mountain Ash Forest.

corin.com.au

MOUNT AINSLIE

Canberra's city design is best appreciated from the top of Mount Ainslie. Gaze down Anzac Parade to Parliament House. The summit trail begins behind the Australian War Memorial and features heartwarming plaques and memorials along the way.

awm.gov.au

BLACK MOUNTAIN

Choose from the many routes that lead to Black Mountain's summit and be rewarded with panoramic views over the lake and city. Keen adventurers can explore the Australian National Botanic Gardens at the base of Black Mountain and great views from the top.

parksaustralia.gov.au/botanic-gardens

RED HILL

South of the city centre, Red Hill offers an amazing lookout over many national attractions and sweeping vistas of Canberra. In autumn, the brilliant reds and oranges of the deciduous trees in the suburbs below are breathtaking. Combine these views with a delicious meal at the top.

MOUNT TAYLOR

A short walk to the peak along a well-trodden track will offer 360-degree views of the surrounding valleys and Brindabella Ranges, sometimes topped with snow during winter. The reserve's woodlands are home to many rare plants, birds and animals.

Plan your walks at australianhiker.com.au

The Black Mountain Summit Walk is nicknamed the flower to tower trail.

Share your travels

with more than your camera roll, use #visitcanberra

Scan here for a chance to win!

Jamala Wildlife Lodge

Regatta Point, Barrine Drive, Parkes, ACT 2600 • 1300 554 114 • visitcanberra.com.au

Open 9am-5pm weekdays
 Open 9am-4pm weekends public holidays Closed Christmas Day.